Course Requirements

This course is presented on a pass/fail basis only. Attendance is required of all Music Business Majors.

Special Accommodations

Students with disabilities who believe that they need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact the office of Academic Enrichment and Disability Services at 85-2990 as soon as possible so that accommodations can be implemented in a timely fashion.

Academic Integrity

All work you do for this class is expected to be your own, and academic dishonesty (including, but not limited to plagiarism on papers, music composition or cheating on exams) will be punished. A summary of the University's definitions and procedures concerning academic integrity can be found in the Undergraduate Bulletin (pp. 45-46). If you are uncertain how to use and cite the work of others within your own work, consult reference works such as Kate L. Turbian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 5th ed., revised and expanded by Bonnie Birtwhistle Honigsblum (Chicago and London: University of Chicago Press, 1987), or come see me.

Course Objectives

This seminar will provide students with current discussions related to the music industry. Guest speakers and topics will be presented. Students will have the opportunity to participate in presentations as well as interact with speakers and topic presentations.
